

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MARCH 22, 1880.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. McMILLAN, from the Committee on Commerce, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill S. 856.]

The Committee on Commerce, to whom was referred the bill (S. 856) extending the provisions of section 2997 of the Revised Statutes of the United States to the port of Omaha, in the State of Nebraska, have considered the same, and respectfully report:

That the bill was submitted by the committee to the Secretary of the Treasury for his consideration and an expression of his views thereon. For reasons stated in the reply of the Secretary of the Treasury, embraced in the report of the committee on Senate bill 828 made at the present session of Congress, the committee are of opinion that the bill (S. 856), which is herewith returned to the Senate, should not be passed. The committee therefore recommend that the bill be indefinitely postponed.
